Read Galatians 1:11-24

1. What does, "...set me apart..." mean, from verse 15?
2. Is that different from, "and called me by his grace?"
3. When Ananias said in Acts 9:15, that Saul "...is my (the Lord's) chosen instrument..." what did he mean?
4. How is this type of calling different from the calling we read about in 2 Peter 1:3-11?
5. From these passages and the story in Acts 26 about Saul's conversion, what are the processes of calling that God called Saul to a specific mission? Visions? Dreams? Encouragement from other people?
6. For life in the 21st century, do we have callings, specific purposes, missions, things we are compelled to do, today?
7. I, Doug, believe these are very much a part of our lives today. I believe I was called to Creswell. I cannot explain my being here any other way. If you agree with me, do you believe you have ever been called to a specific ministry or way of life?
8. How does your personal calling fit within our church's vision for Creswell?
9. Describe your calling that could influence our church's actions in the upcoming year or more.
